SHORT BIO (UPDATED - January. 2023)

Gabriele di Franco, born in Italy and currently residing in Brussels is a multi-award-winning composer, writer, and guitarist, working in the contemporary field. Gabriele is fascinated by storytelling and music and is interested in collaborations and explorations of new approaches to narration and composition. He defines himself as an ambiguous artist: living that undefined space between jazz, classical, and world music, focusing on deepness and consciousness in the process of making choices. In other words: composing.

Gabriele graduated in 2014 with a major in Jazz guitar at the Nino Rota Conservatory (IT) with an additional year at the renowned Musik und Kunst Privatuniversität der Stadt Wien (AUS). Gabriele holds a Master in Jazz Composition & Arranging from the Royal Conservatory of Brussels (KCB), where he studied with composers such as Kris Defoort, Lode Mertens, and Peter Swinnen.

Gabriele has received several international awards and honours for his works.

Among them:

- the 2nd prize at the three-year competition "Jazz Comp Graz 2017" for Jazz Orchestra composers under 30.
 - In June 2021, Gabriele was awarded 3rd prize at the "Helsinki International Big Band Composing Contest" with his composition Berlin.
 - September 2022, he was also awarded 1st prize at "Scrivere in Jazz 2022 international composition and arrangement competition for jazz orchestra" (cat A) with "Betsabea".
- And many more.

In August 2021 premiered his first participative music-theatre project "LULELA" (produced by LODmuziektheater - BE): a multi-layered jazz concert with storytelling where the destiny of the protagonist (and the whole performance) is in the hands of the audience.

For LULELA Gabriele was composer, writer, performer, and director.

In January of the same year, the text of LULELA, was also published as a book by Albatros il Filo - IT, gaining critical acclaim and winning several awards. (more info at: Lulela il Libro).
